

Method and System of Posting Electronic Poster through Public Network

Abstract of the Disclosure

A method and system of posting electronic poster through public network accepts posting orders from advertisers by regional service centers, wherein each of the regional service centers obtains information of where and when is each of said electronic posters available for whatever posting size from the central control system through the public network. The posting order will be sent to a central control system display in each of the electronic posters designated by the respective advertiser in the designated size and time by the respective regional control center while each of the electronic posters is always remained electronically controlled by the respective regional control center.

20150424044000